WITH THE MUSIC LOVERS

Philadelphia Orchestra Will Give Concert Tuesday-Miss Kaspar to Be the Soprano Soloist.

be the soloist for the Philadelphia Orches-ing," by Grieg; and Leroy Gilder, who tra next Tuesday Mme. Johanna Gadski, cang "Nirvana," by Adams. tra next Tuesday, Mme. Johanna Gadski, engaged for the concert last Tuesday, soloist in her place.

Karl Grienauer, 'cellist, gave a recital at the Friday Morning Music Club, last Friday. He was accompanied by Mrs. lows: Sonata in C, by Rheinberger; "Love's Dream," by Liszt-Grienauer; "Moonlight," by Grienauer; "Elfen Tanz," by Popper; Prelude, by Bruch: et Toreador," from "Bal Masque, by Rubinstein; "In Paradisum," by Dubois-Grienauer, and "Scherzo de Basque," by Platfi.

The choir of the Ninth Street Christian concert Tuesday night in the church, for the benefit of the organ fund. The programme was given by Mrs. T. R. Pirtle. Miss Daisy Harrison, and Miss Josephine T. Gould, sopranos; Miss Carpenter, Miss Carpenter, Miss Clark, Miss Lightfoot, Miss Peters also Raymond, Miss Rule, Miss Scott, Miss Martin, Mr. Blagg, Mr. Cady, Mr. Carpenter, Mr. Clarke, Mr. Criddle, Mr. Elliott, Mr. Elwood, Mr. Herbert, Mr. Kendrick, Mr. Lybeand, Mr. Morrison, and Mr. Scott. The accompanist was Miss Bessie Harrison.

Miss Carpenter, Miss Carpenter, Miss Yearned Alone, "Nevin's "Nightingale Yearned Alone," Nevin's "Nevin's "Nevin's "Nightingale Yearned Alone," Nevin's "Nevin's "Nev T. Gould, sopranes; Miss Carpenter, Miss Yearned Miss Bessie Harrison.

Mme. Marie von Unschuld will present Miss Roberta Hope Amies in a piano recital next Tuesday afternoon at the studio musicale for her pupils on March Washington Club. Miss Amies will be 19, assisted by the Russian violinist, Daniel Breeskin. Mrs. John B. Henderson, Mrs. David J. Brewer, Mrs. John R. McLean. and Miss Caroline Nabuco are the patronof Beethoven, Chaminade, Chopin, Mac-Dowell, Liszt, and Weber.

The Rebew Orchestra, under the direction of H. W. Weber, will have the sirth public rehearsal this season to-morrow night in the lecture room of the Keller Memorial Lutheran Church. The soloists will be Mrs. A. W. Cummings, contralto; J. G. Klein, tenor; Henry Hazard, flute, and Mr. Hopewell, violinist and concert master of the orchestra.

Herman C. Rakemann, violinist; O. Wolfsteiner, 'cellist, and Oscar Gareissen, pianist, will give classical trios by Haydn On the last afternoon Schubert and city Schumann trios will be given.

The Washington Saengerbund will have their sixth musicale this evening, in their clubhouse, under the direction of Henry Xander. The programme will be as fol- of the Bishop of Washington. lows: "Die Auserwahlte," arranged by Van der Stucken, and "Die Post im Walde," by Schaffer, the Saengerbund; "Cinquieme Valse," by Godard, Miss Erand Dana Holland, bass. This will be and Dubols' Postude in A major, one of the first public appearances of Mr. The visiting organists announce McFarland since his long and serious illness, from which he has but recently re-

Dayelle Taylor Welch; bass solo, "The soprano. Arab's Bride," Dana C. Holland; violin solo, "Spring Song," Mark Lansburgh; tralto solo, with violin obligato, "Alte Curtis. Her songs were Lis Stelle Confidante," Miss Florènce Bean Lorelei" and Dennee's Lullaby. and Mr. Lansburgh; sonate, "Fantastic," flute, Antonio Celfo, leader of the soprano; Miss Lillian Chenoweth, first con tralto, and Mrs. Dana C. Holland, second contralto, under the direction of Harry Wheaton Howard, organist and choirmaster of the Church of the Immaculate rides her favorite mount every day in the park, and has become a well-known figure among equestriennes.

up to her and saluted. One of them said: singer in the world to-day, you would be doned, owing to inroads grip had made the empress of the circus. To her surprise she discovered the speaker was the Emperor of Germany.

who has made a success on the profes- and for an encore the Schubert-Liszt "Soiree de Vienne." sional operatic stage, is now singing in Buffalo with the Stewart Opera Company. It is expected he will be in Wash ington during the summer season of opera, which will open here early.

Atlantic City with her parents, Mr. and public since the death of Dr. Gardner. Mrs. Irwin B. Linton, of Eckington. Miss Linton is the organist of the Eck ington Presbyterian Church.

Mrs. J. W. Bigelow, of Washington Pa., who has been the guest of her parents and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Goodman and Miss May Goodman has re turned to her home. The cheir of St. Andrew's Episcopal Church will sing Gounod's "Out of Darkness" this evening. The solos will be sung by the regular quartet of the choir, composed of Mrs. Fanny AtLee Gage, soprano; Mrs. John Roberts, contralto;

Fred Schaefer, bass; and J. Lisle Apple, tenor and director. There are several studio, in the Veerhoff building, damaged solos for both soprano and alto. The badly from fire recently be invested and several solos for both soprano and alto. The sclos for both soprano and alto. The badly from fire recently, he is soccupying

The Musurgia Club, of Washington, gave a concert Thursday evening in the Young Men's Lyceum, in Alexandria. The club chorus, which numbers about He has discontinued his semi-weekly thirty male voices, chosen from the vari- trips from his home in Baltimore to ous choirs of Washington, sang David's Washington.

Miss Franceska Kaspar, soprano, will; barytone solos in the chorus, "Landslid-Edwin H. Callow gave a monologue, could not make arrangements to come to Washington this week for the postponed performance. Miss Kaspar will be the soloist in her place.

Master Roswell E. Boothby, soprano soloist of St. Paul's Episcopal Church, sang Cowen's "Swallows." For encore sang Robinson's "The Night With Stilly Silence Comes.'

The Musurgia Club is an organization only eight months old. Mr. Edgar Priest, choirmaster of St. Paul's Episcopal Grienauer. The programme was as fol- Church, is director. J. H. Cheney, jr., is Miss Eva Whitford, mezzo-soprano, a member of one of David Belasco's companies, who is spending a few weeks with her parents in Washington, gave a song Church, under direction of Joseph O. of Congress. She was assisted by Miss solos; Karl Holer, in piano numbers; Harrison, gave an excellent "Old Folks" Jessamine Lewton, pianist, and accompanied by Mrs Charles B. Ramsdell. Her songs included d'Hardelot's "Be-

Brahms' "Serenade" Dvorak's 'Aus die alte Mutter," Cowen's "A Birth-Tschaikowski's "Ye Who Have

Grieg; Raff's "Spinning Song," a Chopin Valse, and Paderewski's "Polonaise."

Mrs. Sallie Bradley McDuffie will give a

Edwin Hughes, piapist, of Washington, now in Vienna studying with Leschetizky, had the distinction to be among the soesses. Miss Amies will play compositions loists who played at the "first class" given by that master this season. Those everal seasons, whereas Mr. Hughes has Rosa, been there only this winter. He played a Chopin Scherzo and one of Leschetizky's own compositions

He was one of the soloists at an even-

Miss Irene Dieterich, of this city, who these afternoons, the other two to be on March 15 and 29. Trilos of Beethoven and other three weeks. Miss Dieterich is a decretain other idle vacation. Mendelssohn will be given on March 15. daughter of Frederick Dieterich, of this No child alighted from the long train recital by Miss Ella Stark for March 2, indication of nervousness.

The tenth season of the Lenten organ recitals by Henry H. Freeman, in Old mission, and the lighting up of her deli-St. John's Episcopal Church, on Lafayette cate face was well worth seeing. tuam Mobile," by Ries, Anton Kaspar,
"Until the Dawn," by Parks, Charles Meyers, tenor; William McFarland, secand tenor; Poland P. Rodrick, houstless than the prolight form of the ond tenor; Roland R. Rodrick, barytone, gan by Mr. Freeman; Manney's Capriccio,

The visiting organists announced to appear in the series of recitals will be Stan-ley Addicks and William Stansfield, of you were a child? I supposed you would Philadelphia, and Dr. J. W. Bischoff, bring your dollie with you. The pupils of the Technical High School Church, in this city. The visiting soloists organist in the First Congregational gave a concert in the assembly hall of will be Ernest Lent, violoncellist; Anton the Business High School on Friday Kaspar, violinist; male chorus, composed evening. The programme included the of the men of the choir of St. John's; march. "Under the Banner of Victory," Harry Mitchell, basso; Joseph Mathleu, by the orchestra; soprano solos by Mrs. tenor, and Master Daniel Wilkerson,

Mrs. Lucile I. Betts and Miss Bertha Hansen, the young soprano, have returned graceful, alluring motion. Her yellow contralto solo, "Angus MacDonald." Mrs. Dana C. Holland; Rubinstein's Melody in from New York, where they spent ten Dana C. Holland; Rubinstein's Melody in F, orchestra; trombone solo, "Thy Sentinel Am I," George W. Sunderland; contralto solo, with violin obligato, "Alte Curtis. Her songs were Liszt's "Die almost black with her changing thoughts."

Miss Ella Stark, the young German Celfo Band; quartets, "Welcome, Pretty planist, who has made a reputation in Primrose," Pinsuti, and "Sweet Miss Mary," Philharmonic Quartet, composed of Mrs. Dayelle Taylor Welch, first soprano; Mrs. William Keye Miller, second is the Cathedral School for Girls, where she is the head of the plane department of the feelings, considering the fact that I was regarding the fact that is the head of the piano department. She was assisted by Miss Norton, soprano, pupil in the Cathedral School.

Miss Stark opened the programme with the Fantasie in F minor. Her second number was made up of six Etudes, A flat major, C sharp minor, F minor, C minor, Mme. Sembrich, the great soprano, who will be heard here on March 10, is a horsewoman. When in New York she rides her favorite mount every day in

Mrs. Henry Hunt McKee, director of the Washington Branch of the Ogden-Crane Last fall, while in Berlin, she was rid- School of Opera, of New York, gave a ing on the parade ground, when her recital with the pupils of the school last horse, a white Barbary mare, became un- Tuesday evening in the ball-room of the ruly as some heavy artillery was passing. Raleigh Hotel. She was assisted by Prof. Finally, as Mme. Sembrich brought the Charlemagne Koehler, stage director, and animal to submission, two officers rode Julian Brylawski, business manager. The one-act operetta, "Love and Whist." Madame, if you were not the greatest the programme for repetition, was abanin the cast. S. M. Fabian, the local planist, and Mrs. Jonas substituted on short notice. Mr. Fabian played Chopin's Huntington May, the Washington basso were two Etudes and a waltz of Chopin A flat Polonaise. His other numbers

> Mrs. Annie B. Gardner, widow of Dr. Frank A. Gardner, a conspicuous figure in the musical and social life of Washington

The oratorio, Mendelssohn's "Elijah," will be given by the choir of Trinity be impossible. It's sure waiting just Episcopal Church next Friday evening in around the corner." that church, under the direction of the choirmaster and organist, Oscar Franklin Comstock.

The part of Elijah will be sung by The part of Elijan will be sung by Frederick A. Fletcher; the Widow will be sung by Mrs. Ernest G. Atkins; "An Angel." by Miss Helen W. Bane, and Obadiah by T. Barton Easby. The minor solo parts will be taken by Miss Mabel Harnden, Miss M. Emma Bowen, W. Dayle, and Edwin T. Miller. Thomas Davis, and Edwin T. Miller.

badly from fire recently, he is occupying the choir room in Trinity Church. His February studio recital has been omitted.

Just day dreaming. You are going into the world presently yourself."

That's different. I am a man, and a February studio recital has been omitted.

W. Edward Heimendahl was the victim of a recent accident, breaking his leg. gie, and you should be protected. Let He has discontinued his semi-weekly me take care of you. Margle; and let me ous choirs of Washington, sang David's symphonic ode, "The Desert."

"The Madrigal Quartet," composed of Messrs. Mathleu, Giider, Hicks, and Apple, all of the club, sang a double number, "The Hunting Song" and "Sleep, My Lady," both by Gelbel, and two encores. The soloists were: Joseph Mathleu, whose first solo was "In the Desert;" and James Hicks, who sang the days later than he had planned in order of the days later than he had planned in order of the symphonic ode, "The Desert," and George Daland, for several years with no show of yielding. "If I were like other women, Frank, I would put my arms around your neck and say 'yes,' so happily—oh, so happily—and choir Boys' School in Philadeiphia. Mr. Daland remained here for some days later than he had planned in order of the gentleness was a later to give his aid to the Choral Society at the direction and staging of Harry Stev-

The orchestra was made up of local companist

Mr. Daland's health has been delicate Robert Kause for some time.

director, and Ernest Galleher concert was obliged to repeat the song. master, in the Metropolitan Methodist Episcopal Church on Tuesday evening, will mark the first appearance of the members of the faculty of the Washington Institute of Music.

The Mandolin and Guitar clubs will play accompanist

The club will give another concert about the middle of the month.

The club will give another concert tion with the Banjo Club they will play the "Flower of Mexico." by Curti, and the Lustspiel Overture by Bela and Red tion with the Banjo Club they will play the "Flower of Mexico," by Curti, and "Woodland Memorles," by Rapp. The Banjo Club will play "Love and Beauty Waltzes," by Armstrong, and "Gate City March," by Welden.

Members of the faculty who will assist recital on Thursday afternoon in the are L. E. Manoly, 'cellist,' who will play reading-room for the blind in the Library two solos; C. E. Christiani, in some violin

Mrs. Ethel Holtzelaw Gawler, of Wash-Oberolser will give a reading, R. B. Gordon will play a banjo solo, and Miss Eva E. Fields and Karl Holer will play ac-

A performance of Gilbert and Sullivan's Hall. The production was given under works the choir will give.

dis "The Redemption" was sung with orchestral accompaniment.

when Verens, tenor soloist.

Mrs. Torbert trained the soloists and orchestral accompaniment.

players. Mr. Daland was one of the sec- The cast follows: Sir Joseph Porter, K. ond violins.

C. B., Mr. Robert Stuart Campbell; Capt.
Corcoran, Capt. Arthur Kause; Ralph, ance on this occasion, and organized the Henry J. Daly; Dick Deadeye, Wesley B. orchestra with that in view. His health Peckham; Josephine, Mrs. W. S. Torbert; gave out, so he was obliged to give up Little Buttercup, Miss Katherine Whit-the honor. Dr. Hammer was selected to comb; Cousin Hebe, Miss Sue Dorsey; boatswain, Mayne Coe; boatswain's mate

Louis H. Nebel, barytone, a recent addition to musical Washington, sang the The concert of the Nordica Mandolin, opening solo of the second act, the fa-Guitar and Banjo Clubs, Walter T. Holt mous "Fair Moon, to Thee I Sing." He

Others in the opera were Misses Alice, Helen, and Mabel Carpenter, Miss Virginia Collins, Miss Agnes Cruikshank, Miss Bessie Gochenour, Miss Josephine Hertford, Miss Elva Whitcomb, Harry Chaney, Alexander Cruikshank, David Hart, Arthur Jett, and Charles L. Kneipp.

The organ recital which was to have een given by Edgar Priest last Tuesday evening was canceled, owing to the death of Bishop Satterlee.

The last meeting of the Unschuld Club was held last Friday evening in the rooms to their home in Jersey City, after a week's stay with Mr. and Mrs. Clarence C. Leadbeater. of the University of Music and Dramatic Art. Miss J. Duncan played Liszt's "Valse Impromtu," Miss R. Bower Web-Ernest E. Leigh, in charge of the vocal er's "Sonata" in A flat major, Miss Mildepartment of the institute, and Messrs. dred Kolb played Chopin's A flat "Polo-Holt, president, and Galleher, who will naise" with great brilliancy and power, play "Valse Brilliante," by Abt, on man-"Concertstuck," and is deserving of redit for the way she plays. Mr. A. ington, soprano sololst, will assist. H. E. Seidler played several numbers on the town, will give Mendelssohn's "Hear My Janney. Prayer" next Wednesday. Master Ros-A performance of Gilbert and Sullivan's well Boothby, soprano, and Mr. Edgar 'Pinafore' was given Tuesday evening Priest, organist, will be the soloists. This by the Lyric Club in Carroll Institute will be the first of a series of musical

WHEN MARGIE CAME TO EL ROSA

By INA WRIGHT HANSON.

said her aunt, Mrs. Graham, mistress of There came a day, long months after El Rosa. "You are the only one of us El Rosa was only a memory, when : ing's entertainment recently in the United who can talk with fingers to the poor, north-bound train was taking me with afflicted child."

as met success in the "Merry Widow." drive from El Rosa, in the hills, to the thoughts and joyful anticipation. I was in New York, in the few weeks she has little board station on the track, where going to Margie, "seriously hurt; will been on the professional stage, went to I was to meet Margie coming out of the die." Detroit last week, where she became the north. As I drove along, I reviewed the and Mozart, this afternoon, in the studio under-study for Louise Gunning in "Tom of Mr. Garelssen. There will be three of Jones." She will remain there for three guage glad that I had learned them on hours wasted when I did not know! She > but a young, slender woman, with hair Mrs. Barbour Walker, of the Cathedral which I had passed. She came directly selves into my aching eyes as the train crawled on!

>
> How the diapolical words burned them which I had passed. She came directly selves into my aching eyes as the train crawled on!
>
> How the diapolical words burned them which I had passed. She came directly selves into my aching eyes as the train crawled on! School for Girls, who had cards out for a to me, somewhat timidly, but with no has recalled them on account of the death up a tiny book fastened to her chateine, and penciled rapidly:

"Are you from El Rosa?" Instantly my fingers went into com-opera, by Tschaikowsky. Mme. Anita a programme of entirely new numbers. "You do beautifully," she flashed back. Heineck-Lloyd; "Romance" and "Perpe-including Faulkes' Concert Overture in "I am so glad I do not have to do the "Terrible! I see my finish," I answered. mournfully-or it would have mournful if my fingers could have shown

Margie laughed. "You mean my Teddy bear. Dolls aren't fashionable nowadays. I suppose you thought I was a child by the way auntie talks about me. I get lots of petting everywhere I go; and, honestly, I like it."

She was very attractive, this silent Margie. Silent is not the word at all, Margie. either, for she was anything but silent She was the embodiment of motion, hair blew gently in little rings about her her pretty mouth, though denied the power of speech could smile with a score of meanings; and her fluttering, slender fingers spoke grace itself. By the time we feelings, considering the fact that I was a confirmed celibate—or thought I was.

How Margie loved flowers! The roses which gave the house its name, the pinks, nasturtiums, the red geraniums, which Californians are inclined to dub "common"—she reveled among them like a golden butterfly. But better, I think, did she love the wild things of the hills. When we came in from our horseback rides, fragrance of monardella, and Southern wood, and "good medicine" mingled their sweetness, and floated from her garments like incense from about some eautiful golden-crowned sun goddess. We never saw that girl morbid; she was had been so cruelly afflicted. about with us; and that we are never real sufferers except by our own fault." fault that you are deprived of hearing beautiful words and making them?"

"Perhaps your ideas of damage and mine are not quite the same," she spelled; and cent a happiness that unhappiness will Mrs. D. P. McCartney.

Another day we sat on the hillside, idly watching birds and butterflies and creeping things at our feet. "Are you going to stay here, as you aunt wishes?" I asked her.

"Oh, no!" The answer came quickly. "An "In a few days I am going to work. am to teach in the school for deaf and dumb at Salem. "Life would be pleasanter here for you, and safer," I objected.

"What is life," she spelled, quaintly.

man's place is in the busy world. You are only a dear, little, loving child, Marbegin now. Will you be my wife, sweet-heart? You know how I love you."

The mustard had wedded California | firmness of will which admitted no weakwho appear at this performance each plain to plain, binding them with its ening. So, in a few days, Margie went to the guests of Mr. and Mrs. George S. year are pupils who have been studying golden bands, when Margie came to El her work in Salem, and I to mine in Los French. Angeles. She would write to me-she "You had better go after her, Frank," would grant me that consolation, maddening slowness to Margie. I was Having nothing to do but idle away my not going as I had always planned that vacation, I very gladly took the ten-mile some time I should go-with happy had been taking her weekly walk from the school to the city, when, as she was passing the rock quarry, an explosion had occurred. "Seriously hurt; will die." colored like the fields of mustard through How the diabolical words burned them-> was in the nurse's face to tell me, but I ran. ouldn't wait to hear it.

I bent over my darling, and my heart "Frank-I am-like--"
The halting tongue was too slew, and "I am as other women now, Frank. Bentley.

The explosion hurt me, but see what it did—I can hear you speak, and I can halk, though my hands are still. I told you that some day I should turn a cor-

The little hands were forced to rest. My overpowering joy, and the lump I was trying to swallow, made me foolish I've been standing around the corner all the time," reproached my silly tongue, "but you wouldn't open your eyes and

She laughed, and her mouth formed a word, "Frank!" Oh, the sweetness of it! Then the little fluttering fingers again. "You are very conceited, and some day I am going to rumple your hair dreadfully; but just now I want to go to sleep. When I wake up-The dear eyes closed, and the smiling nurse beckoned me away-till she should wake up. (Copyright, 1998, by C. H. Sutcliffe.)

"PRESENT-DAY RUSSIA."

Illustrated Lecture for Charity Under Fashionable Auspices.

The illustrated lecture on "Present-day Russia," to be given at the Columbia Theater on Monday afternoon, at 4:45 o'clock, by Mr. Kellogg Durland, promises to be full of interest. The large part that Russia has taken on the world's stage of recent years of necessity places that country and its people in the public eye. But intimate knowledge in regard Jacobson, Mrs. R. W. Colman, Mrs. to Russia has been so difficult to obtain James, Mrs. Nevilles, Mrs. S. Sorrens, that the chance offered the public of and Mr. C. D. Jacobson, all of Wasi Washington in this lecture of Mr. Dur- ton, and Mr. W. Gauther, of Buffalo land's should attract attention to the extent of an overflowing audience. Mr. like a spirit from paradise, with its brightness still touching her. One day I asked her how she could be so, when she had been so cruelly afflicted.

Durland knows whereof he speaks, too, as may be judged from his prolonged trip in the country of the Czars. He will be introduced by the Hon, Bourke Cockran, "Nothing can work me damage except myself," she answered. "Some one has of New York. During Mr. Durland's lecsald that the harm we sustain we carry ture he will exhibit on a screen what is, perhaps, the finest collection of photoal sufferers except by our own fault." graphs that has ever been procured in "That doesn't prove up. Is it your Russia. The lecture is given under the fashionable women who are interested in providing for the needs of poor churches, B. Daingerfield and Mrs. T. Marshall Jones are not quite the same," she spelled; and her eyes were very tender. "I have so much that otherwise I might have missed. I have learned so much. I have learned so much learned so muc learned to be happy, whether I am happy or not." Here she laughed. "Oh, that Robert Hinckley, Mrs. John Moore, Miss William B. Smoot, Mr. and Mrs. William B. in the musical and social life of Washington for some years, is spending the winter little private theory that just around the for some years, is spending the winter little private theory that just around the for some years, is spending the winter little private theory that just around the for some years, is spending the winter little private theory that just around the for some years, is spending the winter little private theory that just around the for some years, is spending the winter little private theory that just around the for some years, is spending the winter little private theory that just around the for some years, is spending the winter little private theory that just around the for some years, is spending the winter little private theory that just around the for some years, is spending the winter little private theory that just around the corner there is waiting for me so great a happiness that I won't ever have to pretend any more. It will be so magnificant with the musical and social life of Washington can be done. But do you know I have a little private theory that just around the corner there is waiting for me so great a happiness that I won't ever have to pretend any more. It will be so magnificant with the musical and social life of Washington can be done. But do you know I have a little private theory that just around the corner there is waiting for me so great a happiness that I won't ever have to pretend any more. It will be so magnificant with the musical and social life of Washington can be done. But do you know I have a little private theory that just around the corner there is waiting for me so great a happiness that I won't ever have to pretend any more. It will be so magnificant the musical and social life of Washington and Mrs. Carr, Mrs. J. B. Bobter Hinckley, Mrs. John Moore, Miss Albanda Robert Hinckley, Mrs. John Moore, Miss Albanda Robert Hinckley, Mrs. John Moore, Mrs. J. B. Bobter Hinckley, Mrs. John Moore, Mrs. William B. Smoot, Mrs. William B. Smoot, Mrs. William B. Smoot,

THE LIFE-SAVER.

(To save the town of Nacozari, Mexico, Jesus Garcia, a Mexican engineer, sacrificed his life. Two carloads of dynamite caught on fire while standing in the heart of the town. Garcia coupled his entire that the control of the town. gine to them and started for the outskirts as fast ocomotive could go, the explosion occurring a ached the section-house, blowing him to atoms.

Jesus Garcia, call'd the fearless, Died as heroes die, that day, Nacozari be thou tearless, For upon fame's steep highway Stands a victor, and fame's glory Lights his pathway with its sheen Thus he died, as in the hoary Standing where he'll know no morrow, Standing where he'll know no morrow, Quick he sees the menace dire, Quick he hears the cry of horror, God! the dynamite's on fire! Quick he acts, his engine rushes, Speeding on with clanging bell. Black despair his brave heart crushes, Pointing to the mouth of hell, To the spitcful sparks that, flying, Taunt him, urging him to fly, Lering tongues of flame still crying, "Save thyself, why should st thou die?"

Flying onward, nothing heading, As a warhorse scents the fray, So he rode, forever speeding, To the land of endiess day, Who shall fitting tell his story? Who recount his deeds again?
Who shall paint his Christlike glory?
Tell his God he died for men?

Continued from Page Four.

day afternoon. Mrs. George Uhler and Mr. Scott, playing East and West, made the top score. Others play-ing were: Mrs. Louis C. Barley, Mrs. William B. Smoot, Mrs. Thomas W. Robinson, Mrs. Carroll W. Ashby, Mrs. T. Marshall Jones, and Miss Elizabeth Potts.

Miss Mary Custis Lee is spending several weeks in Cannes, France, Mr. John Janney, of Leesburg, was the guest of Mr. Arthur Herbert during the Mr. Dan Sale, of Lynchburg, has returned to his home after spending the holiday with Mr. and Mrs. Albert D.

Mrs. Hudson Martin, of Fabre, Nelson County, is visiting her son, Mr. Charles T. Martin, in King street.

Dr. and Mrs. W. Allen have returned

Paymaster Frank Watrous, U. S. N., was the guest of Mr. A. C. Chalmers last

Miss Margretta McGuire, of Richmond, is visiting Mrs. Hugh McGuire, it South day of Gen. Wachington on Friday Washington street.

Among the Alexandrians attending the leap year dance in Georgetown Friday evening were Miss Mary Snowden, Mr. The choir of St. Paul's Church, George- Harry Beverley, and Mr. Mahlon H.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Randolph How-

Miss Marie Neil has returned to Gunston Institute after spending the holidays with Miss Belle Daingerfield.

Messrs. Joe Bowen, Hendley Bowen, Alger Daingerfield, and Beardric Howell, of the University of Virginia, spent the holiday with friends in this city.

Mrs. Hugh McGuire entertained infornally at cards on Tuesday afternoon, in honor of Miss Margretta McGuire, of

Mrs. John W. Tolman entertained friends Wednesday afternoon at eighthand euchre at her home in Duke street. Mrs. Tolman's guests were Mrs. Thomas B. Cochran, Miss Mildred Foster, Miss and Mrs. Julian Miller, Dr. and Mrs. After an eternity of misery, I found myself at Margie's bedside, but before I had reached her I had found the newspaper story was false, in that she would mean the control of the control not die-she would live! Something else by Miss Eva Dent and Miss Cora Coch-

The reading club which has just been I bent over my darling, and my heart jumped as I saw the joy in her face at sight of me. Even as I noted that, a voice, sweet as the gentle spirit of her, came to my wendering ears:

The reading clas which has just been gowen, and charles in the control of the reading clas which has just been gowen, and charles in the control of the reading clas which has just been gowen, and charles in the control of the reading clas which has just been gowen, and charles in the control of the reading clas which has just been gowen, and charles in the control of the reading clas which has just been gowen, and charles in the control of the control of the reading clas which has just been gowen, and charles in the control of the control of the reading class which has just been gowen, and charles in the control of the contro The members are Misses Marian Bryant, Clarence and Mary Snowden, Grace An-Hunter, Milton French, Henry O. F. the weak, eager fingers took up the sen-ence.

Clarence and Mary Showden, Cooper, Wallace Lindsay, Charles Bar-derson. Dorsey Ashton. Elsie Snowden, Mary Leadbeater, and Edith and Mildred rett, Mahlon Janney, Richard Chichesand the Stars and Stripes were much adand the Stars and Stripes were much admired in the decoration in honor of the holiday. Miss Agnew's guests were: Mr. and Mrs. Edward Kemper, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Kemper, Mr. and Mrs. Va.; Archie Goodhoe, of Culpeper; John Wastelling Research Mrs. Wall and and Mrs. Edward Kemper, Mr. and Mrs. Kosciusko Kemper, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Rogers, Miss Louise White, of Washington, D. C.; Miss Gretta McCoy, of Riverton, Va.; Miss Katie Green, of Delapiane.

Paymaster Frank Watrous, U. S. N. Va.; Miss Anita Robbins, Mrs. Isaac Gregg, Messrs, William J. Hall, James Douglas, John Agnew, Raymond Acton, beautifully appointed luncheon of ten cov. Frank Slaymaker, Dr. Ernest L. Allen, ers Friday at her home in Fairfax. The and Mr. Robert Davis, of Washington, D. The prizes were won by Mr. Edward Kemper and Dr. E. L. Allen.

Fawcett were hostesses last Saturday at a tea, in honor of Washington's Birthday They were assisted by Miss Pattie Washington and Miss Dolly Zimmerman. Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Jacobson, of the Colonial, were hosts at a dinner of twelve covers on Washington's Birthday, when all of their guests were out-of-town friends. The dining-room was decorate in national and international colors in honor of their foreign guests, who were Messrs. F. G. Aimabel and E. Garlock, of Nottingham, England; W. Ramsey, of Dundee, Scotland; E. Bell, of Glasgow, Scotland. Others present were: Mrs. H.

Mrs. Herbert Oliver was hostess for the Eight-hand Euchre Club, of which she is a member, Wednesday afternoon. Miss Lucy Douglas won the prize. Others en joying the game were Misses Lida Mc-Laughlin, Mary Thomson, Mary Gilkeson, Mary Phillips, and Miss Cora Cockran.

The Senior Euchre Club had one of the most enjoyable meetings of the season on auspices of the large organization of Wednesday evening, when Mrs. William entertained them at the residence of the Hubert Snowden, Miss Margaret McG. Ashby, Miss Elizabeth Potts, Miss Margretta McGuire, and Mrs. John Foster. Miss Elizabeth Jones and Miss Belle Dain

> The Thursday Club was entertained last week by Mrs. Carroll W. Ashby. Mrs. Ashby's guests were Mrs. William B. Daingerfield, Mrs. Robert W. Fuller, Mrs. Stuart Jamieson, Mrs. Louis C. Barley Mrs. George Uhler, Mrs. Kesciusko Kemper, Mrs. William B. Smoot, Mrs. George S. French. Mrs. Clarence R. Howard, Mrs. Arthur Snowden, Mrs. Thomas W. Robinson, Mrs. William J. Boothe. Mrs. Emmett Dunn, Miss Phillippi Wattles, Miss Elizabeth Janney, and Miss Elizabeth Potts. Mrs. George Uhler and Miss Potts won the prizes.

The engagement of Miss Julia Muchette, of West River, Md., and Mr. J. Harris Franklin, formerly of this city, and now of Washington, is announced. The wedding will take place in the spring. Mrs. Gardner Lloyd Boothe was hostess at a card party on Thursday afternoon in honor of Miss Margretta McGuire, of Richmond. The parlors were prettily decorated with enchantress carnations and pink roses. Those asked to meet Miss McGuire were Mrs. Arthur Bryant, Mrs. Hugh McGuire, Mrs. Richard Gibson, Mrs. Tell his God he died for men?

THOMAS H. HERNDON. Hugh McGuire, Mrs. Richard Groence C.

ALEXANDRIA SOCIETY Leadbeater, Miss Helen Holohan, of Lancaster, Pa., and Mrs. Herbert Lightfoot, of Washington. The prize was won by Mrs. Arthur Bryant.

The Junior Euchre Club was entertained by Miss Clarence Snowden, on Thursday evening, at her home in King street. The members present were Misses Jean Brent, Courtney Greenough, Re-becca Uhler, Katie Smoot, Mary Snowden, Mary Phillips, Belle Daingerfield, Georgie French, Hattie Douglas, Ellen Fawcett, Mary Randolph, Marion Bryant, Mildred Foster, Annie Murphy, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas B. Cochran, Messrs, Anthony Armstrong, Wallace Lindsay, Charles Barrett, James Douglas, Edward Fawcett, Henry O'B. Cooper, Charles Smoot, Harry Beverley, Milton French. Wilmer Waller, and Dr. Berry. prizes were won by Miss Courtney Greenough, Mr. Henry O'B. Cooper, Miss Jarion Bryant, Mr. Jack Ashton, and

Mrs. John Hunton Foster and Miss Carrie Stribling entertained at three tables of bridge Friday afternoon, when their guests were Mrs. William B. Smoot, Mrs. David J. Howell, Mrs. T. Marshall Jones, Mrs. Carroll W. Ashby, Mrs. Samuel Monroe, Mrs. Thomas W. Robinson, Mr-William J. Boothe, jr., Miss Elizabeth Potts, Miss Margaret McG. Ashby, Miss Nannie Norton, and Miss Helen Cum-The annual ball given by the Alexandria German Club in honor of the birthvening was the most brilliant social went of this season. The hall was decorated with paims, and the entire ceiling was covered with Southern smilax, through which peeped hundreds of red, white, and blue electric lights. The cospent several days during the past week with friends in this city.

Mrs. James V. Upton, of San Antonio.

Tex., assisted by Mr. Harry Beverley and Miss Fligabeth. tillion wash led by Judge Barley and and Miss Elizabeth Jones. The chap-erons were Mrs. James Sidney Douglas, Miss Marie Waite has returned to Culpeper, Va., having spent a fortnight with Miss Loula Smoot, in this city.

Mrs. George E. Mushback, Mrs. Carroll
W. Ashley, Mrs. George Uhler, and Mrs. William B. Daingerfield. Some of the out-of-town guests were Miss Mary Mr. Frank Todd has returned to Donohoe, of Fairfax, Va.; Miss Earling Paeonia Springs, where he is attending Tanut and Miss Frankie Tanut, of Culschool.

Tanut and Miss Frankie Tanut, of Culschool. . Va.; Miss Marguerite Jones and Miss Beatrice Darneille, of Memphis, Tenn. Miss Youngs, of Portsmouth; Miss Charlotte England, of Baltimore, Md.; Miss Katie Green, of Delaphane; Miss Lucile Martin, of Blue Ridge Summit, Pa.; Miss Helen Holohan, of Lancaster, Pa.; Mrs. James V. Upton and Miss Winslow, o San Antonio, Tex.; Miss Bessie Crosby of Norfolk; Mrs. Agnes Quarles, of Dela-plane; Mrs. Cole, Mrs. Salty, Miss Ralph Mrs. George Derrick. Miss Hildreth Gate wood, Miss Dorothy Gatewood, and Miss Frances Dodge, all of Washington; Misses Eva and Mary Dent, Courtney Greenough, Clarence Snowden, Georgie French, Belle Daingerfield, Laura Danenhouer, Marion Gregg, Lucy Douglas, Edith Ramsey, Elizabeth Herbert, Hattie Douglas, Jessie Armstrong, Mary Phillips, Mary Bentley, Jean Carter, Elizabeth Jones, Mary Snowden, Jean Brent, Annie Murphy, Rebecca Uhler, Thomas B. Cochran, Mrs. Richard E. Acton, Mrs. Isaac Gregg, Mrs. Edward Cheyney, Foster Slaughter, George Minnigerode, Howard Wright, Lee Clarkson lari Minnigerode, John Brewer, F. W.

> Janney, of Leesburg; Frank McCormick of Berryville, Va.; Richard Farr, of Fair Alexandrians present were Miss Belle Daingerfield, Miss Hattie Douglas, Miss

ARMY AND NAVY.

Army Orders.

ng captains detailed to enter class at Army ool of the Line, Fort Leavenworth, August CARL F. HARTMANN and HENRY S. IS: CARL F. HARTMANN and HENRY S. HATHAWAY, Signal Corps: EDWARD L. KING and CHARLES A. RGMEYN, Second Cavalry; CASPER H. CONRAD, Jr., Third Cavalry; ALBERT N. MCCLURE, Fourth Cavalry; NATHANIEL F. McCLURE, Fifth Cavalry; THOMAS Q. DONALDSON, Jr., and EDGAS A. SIRMYER, Eighth Cavalry; SAMUEL G. JONES, Eleventh Cavalry; FRANK M. CALDWELL, Twelfth Cavalry; THOMAS M. CORCORAN, Thirteenth Cavalry; THOMAS M. CORCORAN, Thirteenth Cavalry; GUY CUSHMAN, Fifteenth Cavalry; GUY CUSHMAN, Fifteenth Cavalry; JESSE G. LANGDON, First Field Artillery; CHARLES C. PULLS, Second FIELD C. PULLS CARDES C. PULLS C. PULLS CARDES C. P Caralny; JESSE G. LANGDON, Fust Field Artillery; CHARLES C. PULIS, Second Field Artillery; FREDERICK B. HENNESSY, Third Field Artillery; MANUS McCLOSKEY, Fourth Field Artillery; JOHN W. KILBRETH, Jr., Sixth Field Artillery; ALFRED ALOE, First Infantry; CHARLES S. LINCOLN, Second Infantry; JOHN W. BARKER and ROBERT W. BARNETT, Third Infantry; EZEKIEL J. WILLIAMS, Fifth Infantry; WILLIAM K. JONES and EDGAR T. COLLINS, Sixth Infantry; CHARLES GERHARDT and HOUSTON V. and EDGAR T. COLLINS, SIXth Infantry CHARLES GERHARDT and HOUSTON V. EVANS, Eighth Infantry; ELI A. HELMICK Terth Infantry; ROBERT ALEXANDER, Eventh Infantry; GLENN H. DAVIS, Twelfth Infantry; EDGAR A. FRY and CHARLES N. MURPHY, Thirteenth Infantry; JOHN McA. PALMER and FRANK W. ROWELL, FIX. CONT. LIGITATION, EDGAR, DITTENDING. PALMER and FRANK W. ROWELL, Fitteenth Infantry; EDGAR RIDENOUR, Sixteenth Infantry; JOHN W. WRIGHT, Seventeenth Infantry; BERKELEY ENOCHS and JAMES JUSTICE. Nineteenth Infantry; GEO.
B. POND. Twentieth Infantry; LORRAIN T.
RICHARDSON. Twenty-second Infantry; WILLIAM R. DASHIELL and ISAAC G. JENKS, Twenty-fourth Infantry; PAUL B. MALONE,
Twenty-seventh Infantry, and ALFRED W.
BJORNSTAD, Twenty-eighth Infantry, at HENRY A. LEONHAEUSER. Twenty-first

HENRY A. LEONHAEUSER, Twenty-first nfantry, to Army School of the Line, Fort First Lieut. THOMAS T. DUKE, Twenty-third In General Hospital, Washington Barracks to his regiment.

of Engineers, announced.

Private PRANK P. OBENSHAIN, 141st Company Coast Artillery Corps, from General Hospital Washington Barracis, to Fort McHenry. First Sergt. HENRY TRAPPER, Company C, Six teenth Infantry, placed on retired list.

Corp. MICHAEL STANDERSON, band, Sixteenth Infantry, Fort Crook, transferred to band, Serenth Infantry, as private, to Fort Wayne.

Navy Orders. Lieut. W. S. MILLER, to duty as inspector of ord nance, Brooklyn. Lieut, C. W. FORMAN, detached Bureau of Navi-c gation, home.

Passed Assistant Surgeons H. F. HULL and L. H. WHEELER. commissioned.
Pharmacist R. F. 8. PUCK, appointed.
Pharmacist R. F. 8. PUCK, appointed.
Paymasier's Clerks O. L. HANCOCK and J. E. BIRB, appointed for duty connection yard craft, many yard, New York.
Paymaster's Clerk G. H. WASHBURN, appointed for duty on Vermont.
Paymaster's Clerk R. R. BOLLES, appointed for duty on Hancock.
Boatswain G. C. BEACH, detached Denver, to Naval Hospital, Yokobama.
Ensign J. F. ATKINSON, detached Clereland, to Neval Hospital, Yokobama. Naval Hospital, Yosehama. Midshipman H. B. RIEBE, detached Rainbow, to ner C. J. MILLER, detached Cleveland, to Chief Gunner O. E. REH, detached Naval Station, Cavite.

Gunner H. HACHTMANN, detached Chattanooga, to Naval Station, Cavite, MOVEMENTS OF VESSELS-The following move ments of vessels have been reported to the Bu-reau of Navigation:

Washington larger by thousands than was ever before attained by any morn-ling newspaper at the Capital. Its books rusry 27. Chicago, at Montevideo; Montgomery, are open.

Smoot, Coffer & McCalley

1216 F Street.

-A Choice -Collection of -White & Colored

Wash Goods.

—Imported

You'll have ample time during Lent to plan and prepare your spring and summer wardrobe. The selection of suitable goods will prove a pleasant prelude when you make your selections from this store's stock. All the latest and choicest importations in white and colored Wash Goods are assembled here, and the prices are well within reason.

A splendid line of Linensplain colors and neat stripes-27 and 36 inch widths-priced from 20c to 50c a yard.

New French Ginghams, in all the wanted plain colors and a variety of striped effects. Special, per yd. . 25c Superior Quality Madras, with colored stripes and checks, priced from 25c to 50c per yard. Silk and Cotton Tamise-a charming fabric for summer gowns-new colorsneat stripes. Special, 50c Rose Batiste, in all the leading shades and a wide variety of patterns. Special, 12½c Chiffon Lisse-prettier than ever-in stripes and checks; also Dimities in new effects. Special, per yd. 25c A beautiful showing of genuine French Organdies, in all colors and a wide variety of patterns. Special, per 40c passed by Congress forbidding railroad operators working more than nine hours a Mrs. Edward S. Fawcett and the Misses Mary Dent, and Miss Georgie French.

SMOOT, COFFER & McCALLEY,

SCHOOLS AND COLLEGES.

Elizabeth Jones, Miss Eva Dent, Miss day, has created demand for about 30,000 more telegraph operators than can now be more telegraph operators than can now be secured. Rallroad companies have cut rail#### road wires into Telegraphy Departments of DRAUGHON'S

Practical Business Colleges. For booklet, "Why Learn Telegraphy?" call or address Jno. F. Draughon, Pres. at WASHINGTON: Academy of Music, Cor. Sth & B N. W. BUSINESS men say DRAUGHON'S is THE BEST. THREE months' Bookkeeping by DRAUGHON'S copyrighted methods equals SIX elsewhere. 75% of the U. S. COURT RE-PORTERS write the Shorthand Draughon teaches. Write for prices on lessons in Short-hand, Bookkeeping, Penmanship, etc., BY MAIL or AT COLLEGE. 30 Colleges in 17 States. POSITIONS secured or MONEY BACK. Enter

WASHINGTON INSTITUTE OF MUSIC. WALTER T. HOLT, President and Director.

Vocal, Ernest E. Leigh; Piano and Hannons, Karl Holer; Violin, C. E. Christiani; 'Cello, L. E.

The MILTON SCHOOL 1405 N. Y. AVE. 'Phone M. 4046 STENOGRAPHY, TYPEWRITING, ARITH-METIC, AND ENGLISH.

PERSONAL ATTENTION GIVEN ALL STU-24th year of success in Washington. The Berlitz School of Languages ent awards: St. Louis Exposition, 1901, Grand ; Liege Exposition, 1906, Grand Prize, neb, German, Spanish, Italian, English, &c. ive teachers. Trial lessons free.

PROFESSIONAL CARDS. OSCAR FRANKLIN COMSTOCK. SINGING AND PIANO. STUDIO, 1217 F ST. NW.

723 Fourteenth St. N. W.

at Pensacola. Pebruary 28. Wilmington, at Olongapo; Caesar, at navy yard, New York; Porter, Tinger, De Long, Blakely, and Thornton, at Key West. at Key West, Sailed-February 27, Nero, from San Juan for Hampton Roads, February 28, Hammbal, from Boston for Portsmouth; Tacoma, from St.
Thomas for St. Christopher; Colgos, from Callao for San Diego; Yankton, from Callao for Acapulco, via the Galapagos Islands. February 29, Connecticut, Louisiana, Kansas, Vermont, Georgia, New Jersey, Rhode Island, Vinginia, Minnesota, Ohio, Missouri, Maise, Alabama, Linceis, Kearsarge, Keutucky, and Glacier, from Callao for Magdalena Bay.

The Largest Morning Circulation. All advertising contracts made by The Washington Herald are based upon its bona fide circulation—a circulation in Washington larger by thousands than